Dear Mr. McArron:

Thank you and your associates for your combined comments concerning my response in ANSWER PLEASE.

I think it is a tremendous help that dialogue can take place without either side casting aspersions or threats.

This is why I would very much like to be at your Sept. 23 meeting, but I will be conducting a retreat in Riverside this weekend. I would like to know the date of the next meeting--hopefully your meetings are on Saturday evenings, because I teach at USD on the other evenings.

I am seriously interesting in better understanding your point of view which at this time I cannot accept. And I am definitely not impressed by the article cited (which I had read previously) in U.S. CATHOLIC. The author has stepped outside of his field of expertise if, indeed, he has one.

In the meantime I would very much appreciate it if you would add my name (below) to your mailing list and keeping me informed of meetings. At the first opportunity I would like to meet you and your associates. If nothing else, we can agree on the working principle: "When I say that I am right--that does not mean that you are wrong."

With every best wish, and hoping to hear from you, I am

Sincerely,

(Rev.) Warren J. Rouse, O.F.M.
Executive Secretary
